WOMANS RIGHT TO USE THE BALLOT

ITS UP TO LEGISLATURE TO PASS LAW PERMITTING SUFFRAGE.

May Not Vote Until Year From Next Spring.

Woman undoubtedly cannot vote until a year from next spring, notwithstanding the fact that an amendment giving women the right to vote was passed at the recent election.

The amendment does not carry with it the right to vote. This was an amendment to the constitution which gave the legislature the right to enact a law permitting women to vote. Now it is up to the legislature to amend the election laws so that the ballot may be given to women. Of course it is not incumbent upon the legislature to enact such a law. The constitution now gives the body the right to do it but does not make it imperative. If it should happen that the legislature got into a tangle, the act might be defeated or it might be surrounded with red tape such as to make the law unworkable.

Of course this is not at all likely, yet that is just what happened when the home rule was up for the first time. The constitution of 1907 made home rule possible. It was up to the legislature of 1909 to enact a law making it practical. The legislature tried hard to prevent the enactment of the law. It finally went through, but so surrounded with red tape as to make it almost unworkable. In the legislature of 1911 an attempt was made to make clear the right of cities in their charters to provide for municipal ownership, the recall and non-partisan elections. These measures were fought most bitterly and it is still a question whether they can properly be incorporated in city charters without violating the law.

With this for an example, it is manifest the women have not yet received the ballot. All the vote of the last election did was to grant to the legislature the right to amend the election law, so as to permit them to vote. The first words in the election law reads follows:

"Effective franchise Sec. 1. In an election, every male inhabitant of this state being a citizen of the United States, etc."

Manifestly that clause and all others similar must be amended before the women may vote.

This will undoubtedly be done at the next session of the legislature. It is not probable that any effective opposition to such a law will be made in view of a demand for it in the state, with certain interests opposing women's suffrage the right to vote is still far from being in the hands of the women.

But in case the law is passed by the next session of the legislature it cannot become effective for 90 days from the adjournment of the legislature unless some one can find a good reason for attaching the immediate effect clause to the bill. That will mean it will be next August sometime before the law will become effective and may be an even later date. Last year acts passed by the legislature became effective August 2. If the legislature holds on longer it will be later next year.

Two Million Red Cross Seals in Michigan

Michigan's first consignment of Red Cross Xmas seals, numbering two million is being rapidly distributed among the local agents over the state.

One million and a half of these seals have been sent to local agents, covering the whole of six counties and several cities and towns in twenty other counties. These seals will be put on sale immediately after Thanksgiving.

The design of the seal this year differs greatly from the previous conventional designs. It depicts a Santa Claus head, a holly wreath, and bears the words "Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, American Red Cross, 1912." The paper and the gilding of the seals far surpass that of previous years and it is hoped that the sale of last year, which amounted to over 700,000 seals, will be doubled this year.

Agents are being solicited in every city, town rural, district in the state. All Anti-tuberculosis societies, women's clubs, civic improvement societies, granges, or other organizations wishing to sell Christmas seals to secure funds for the furtherance of local work against tuberculosis, or any organization, person or group of persons interested in the anti-tuberculosis work and willing to help the State Association in securing much needed funds, are requested to apply at once to Miss Carol P. Walton, Secretary of the Michigan Association, Medical Building, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

A button bearing the design of the Red Cross seal is offered as a prize to each child in a rural district selling 25 seals, and to each child in other districts who can sell fifty seals. The State Association especially desires to enlist the co-operation of the rural teachers in this work.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Interesting News From Our Educational Institution.

Miss Dykes was absent from school on account of illness last Friday afternoon.

The first grade is learning "Our Father We Thank Thee"—a song that tells of so many things for which we have to be thankful.

Wilbur and Perry Spoor entered the first grade last week.

Some good pictures of Pilgrims going to church were drawn by the first grade.

The monthly tests are being given in nearly all the grades this week. Look for your child's report card next Monday or Tuesday.

Anna Dingman has returned to school after a weeks absence because of illness.

The botany class is studying the food value of nuts.

The High school girls' team suffered defeat in basketball at the hands of the All City girls last Saturday night. This is one game to two in favor of the High school.

There will be no entertainment course given under the auspices of the senior class this year. The Lyceum bureau could not give us the attractions desired neither would they give satisfactory dates on which they did offer.

Our High school boys' team expect to play the Gaylord High school basketball team at Gaylord tomorrow evening.

The senior class is planning to give a party at the opera house about next Thursday evening.

Barrie Hewitt, who has been absent from classes the last few days on account of sickness, is back again.

Carl Mellstrom and one or two other boys of eighth grade keep the reading table supplied with literature. We are sure they would appreciate help from any others.

The B. B. of the eighth grade are much interested in their study of Robert Burns and his poem, "For a Thimble and a Hat."

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bates very pleasantly entertained the teachers and a few other friends Tuesday evening. The time passed very quickly in the "company" of great men and the foremost magazines of the day. In the dining room which was decorated in pink and white, Mrs. Jerome and Miss Case presided, and served a dainty lunch. The company was unanimous in voting Mr. and Mrs. Bates royal entertainers.

The High School boys and the All City boys will compete for basketball honors at the Temple Saturday at nine o'clock. Both teams are in good trim and the prospects are favorable for a good game. Admission 25 cents.

GRAYLING K. P.'S ENJOY BANQUET.

Local Lodge Extended Hand of Welcome to Grayling Order.

Last evening presented to Gaylord lodge, No. 175, K. P., one of those pleasant occasions which now and then entertain the general routine of the lodge. The guest of the evening were twelve members of Portage lodge K. P. of Gaylord, who came up on the afternoon train to take part in the ritualistic work of the local order and enjoy an evening of general cheer and good fellowship.

Following the degree work in the early part of the evening, the company gathered in the assembly room to partake of the excellent repast that had been served under the auspices of the ladies of the Methodist church. Plates were laid for fifty-two. The banquet consisted of various palatable delicacies prepared and served in the fine manner that bespeaks the handiwork of these ladies. During the banquet the Bijou orchestra entertained the occasion with splendid and well appreciated music.

After feasting was over and cigars lighted, Mr. Ralph Richards, the vaudeville performer, delighted the crowd with his magic feats and witty sayings. Mr. Richards was followed by Miss Winnifred, his assistant, who also proved a clever entertainer.

Mr. B. Bolton then arose in capacity of toastmaster and welcomed the guests in appropriate language. F. G. Walton, chancellor commander of Portage lodge replied to the welcome in behalf of his lodge. His words were well chosen and his remarks were well chosen and much enjoyed. The guests being obliged to leave on the midnight train and the hour rapidly approaching the time of their departure, it was necessary to cancel the rest of the program and say "good night."

Following are the names of the visiting members: E. Rasmussen, Carl Johnson, A. Joseph, Dr. Keyport, Dr. Canfield, P. L. Brown, Geo. McCullough, C. Abbott, H. Hansen, E. G. Walton, P. Rasmussen, Harry Pond, —GAYLORD ADVANCE.

The Home Circle

Let us stop to think of the aged. For us too, the evening shadows will close at length, and we shall, perchance, be left at desolate hearthstones. We shall need so be remembered then.

Marrying for money is no worse than marrying for poverty.

Men frequently lose interest in their homes by their failure to make them interesting and pleasant.

Every temptation resisted, every noble aspiration encouraged, every sinful inclination repressed, every bitter word withheld adds a little to the impetus of that great movement which is bearing us and all humanity onward toward a richer life, a higher character and a nobler destiny.

WANTED: A Boy

A jolly boy.
A boy full of vim.
A boy who scorns a lie.
A boy who will never smoke.
A boy with some "stuck-up."
A boy who takes to the bath-tub.
A boy who is proud of his big sister.
A boy who thinks hard work is no disgrace.
A boy who does chores without grumbling.

A boy who thinks an education is worth while.

A boy that plays with all his might during play hours.

A boy who listens not to "unclean stories" from any one.

A boy who thinks his mother above all mothers as the model.

A boy who does not know more than all the rest of the house.

A boy who does not think it incongruous to mix playing with playing.

A boy who does not need to be called a second time in the morning.

Sunshine in the face, sunshine in the heart and sunshine in our homes if we would be healthy and happy. Catch the sunshine in all the living rooms, roll up the shades and let the flowers and the children, those dearer human flowers—bask in the sunshine, the life of the old world, that is now in the springtime calling the grass, the wild flowers and all vegetation from their damp cold beds to answer to its greetings. The trailing arbutus, that sweetest flower of New England springtime peeps out from beneath its covering of green leaves to greet its warm smiles, the sweet song birds thrill forth their sweetest melodies at sun rise. And in winter how we welcome the sunshine days: It changes our gloom to gladness. Then let us gather in all we can, that when the dark days come we can still have its beams radiate our faces, purify our hearts and glorify our own lives and also the lives of others. Let us daily sing the bright song of sunshine.

Indolence is an enemy to the home. Some men are too lazy to provide decent conveniences at home. It is crime against the happiness of the home for a man to neglect to provide for the little conveniences that will add to beauty and comfort of a home. Say, brother, take out that old, milkweed pillow and put in a pane of glass. It is too painful to sit in a chair upon and put the bricks on the chimney where the storm of last winter blew them off. Put a carpet on the floor and pictures on the shelves and give your family a paper or two to read. Study to make yourself useful, and to rob the home of its bleakness, by providing things that add to its comfort and brightness. Make the children feel that home is a Paradise in which the thrushes of love ever sing high up in the clear blue sky of the humble heart and you will have no fear of turning out thieves and harlots in years to come.

A Proclamation by the Governor.

Another year has been added to the golden scroll of Michigan. Our people have been recipients of God's bounty, His mercy and His Love. The State has been spared famine and pestilence. There has been a wholesome awakening of the public conscience.

Civic ideals were never clearer and higher. Our people have an increased reverence for the laws of God and Man. Every fibre of heart and head thrills with gratefulness to the Divine Father.

Therefore, I, Chase S. Osborn, Governor of Michigan, for the people of this State, having in mind these manifold blessings of God, do proclaim Thursday, the twenty eighth day of November as a day of feasting and thanksgiving to God for His goodness, His protection and His direction.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, this eighth day of November, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twelve and of the Commonwealth of the seventy-sixth.

GRAYLING, THURSDAY, NOV. 21

Retirement of Colonel Loud.

Fortune is a fickle jade, and particularly so in the bestowal of political favors. She badly worsted Colonel Loud in the election on Tuesday, although for five previous terms she smiled upon him. The genial Congressman takes his turn with becoming gracefulness, and in a letter that will appeal to his constituents he expresses in fitting terms his acknowledgments for favors he has received in the past. His career in Congress does him credit. He demonstrated that he has been a good and faithful representative of this district, which has large industrial interest. He has always been a consistent advocate of the policy he deemed essential to promote the expansion of the industries of this district in particular and the state in general. In every test to which he has been subjected he has been found wanting, and his record in Congress has been creditable to him and a matter of pride to his constituency and his party.

In whatever sphere of usefulness his course after his retirement from Congress may direct he will have the most cordial wishes of thousands of friends for his success. —BAY CITY TRIBUNE.

People never break down in health so long as they keep a happy, contented heart. It is the sad and despondent heart that tires, and whatever the load we should always keep a cheerful spirit within. There are always two ways of meeting a hard experience. One is to struggle and exist, refusing to yield. The result of this is the wounding of the soul and intensifying the hardness. The other is to quietly accept the circumstances or restraints and make the best of them by indulging all cheerfully. Those who live in the first way grow old in the middle of life. Those who live the other way keep a young and happy heart down to old age and often find the last days the best and the old age the happiest time of life.

The KITCHEN CABINET

"HINK you—mid all this mighty sum Of things for ever speaking, That nothing of itself will come, But we must still be seeking?"

SOME POTATO DISHES.

A potato salad that is not very common is the following: Dice six cold boiled potatoes, add the chopped whites of three hard cooked eggs; rub the yolks of the eggs smooth with a dash or two of mustard, and add a cup of sour cream. Season with salt and cayenne and pour the dressing over the potatoes. Let the potatoes stand in the dressing some time before serving.

Sweet Potato-Pudding.—This is a West Indian recipe and makes a nice hot luncheon dish. Grate peeled sweet potatoes to the amount of two cups, add a cup of ripe bananas mashed, a cup of brown sugar, three cups of water, a tablespoonful of butter, a teaspoonful of ginger and mixed spices, a dash of salt. Mix well and spread about two inches deep in a well-buttered pie dish and bake for an hour and a half.

Savory Potatoes.—Cut two small pieces of bacon into small pieces, and place them in the bottom of a baking dish; slice three potatoes and half an onion over the bacon. Add two more pepper and salt, then slice in two more slices of bacon, cut fine, season with potatoes; add another slice of bacon, season again and cover with milk. Cover the dish and bake for half an hour, then remove the cover and bake until the potatoes are soft and the top is brown.

Potato With Nuts.—Chop a cupful of nuts and put them into a basin; add a cupful of hot mashed potatoes, a little salt and pepper, two eggs well beaten, a half cup of bread crumbs and milk enough to make a mixture to roll. Roll in crumbs, dot a few pieces of butter over the top. Add milk to the pan and bake until thoroughly hot. Thicken with milk and serve poured around the loaf.

Potato Doughnuts.—Cream three tablespoonfuls of butter, softened, add three-fourths of a cup of sugar, the yolks of three eggs and the white of one, one cup of freshly mashed potatoes and a fourth of a cup of milk, two and a half cups of flour, three tablespoonfuls of baking powder, half a teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of nutmeg. Add the flour gradually; more if needed. Roll all the doughnuts before commencing to fry.

They also had a fancy work booth with some very pretty pieces of fancy work. Stanley Insley won the prize for selling the most supper tickets, numbering 104 and Joe Cassidy selling 101.

Frequent inquiries come to this office regarding the health and condition of Dr. S. N. Insley. We are pleased to inform our readers that Dr. Insley has completely recovered from his injuries of February 19, with the exception of the loss of both feet. With the assistance of artificial feet he is able to be around and is conducting his practice just the same as before. There is scarcely a day that he is not called upon to perform at least one surgical operation at Mercy hospital, and he is called in consultation in important cases in other cities. The doctor is the same earnest, student physician and surgeon that he was before the accident. He can't walk quite as rapidly as before but he drives his car just as usual. In fact Dr. Insley is just as good physically and mentally as he ever was with the exception of the loss of both feet, which are replaced with artificial.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Cooking under modern methods and conveniences is made so attractive the whole family is becoming interested.

"These biscuits are delicious; this cake is excellent," says the father. "I made them," says the daughter, and both father and daughter beam with pleasure.

Royal Baking Powder has made home baking a success, a pleasure and a profit, and the best cooking today the world over is done with its aid.

POWERS-SAY DRUM MUST GO

Will Be Cut Out as Necessary Article of Military Equipment by European Nations.

It was some time ago that, acting upon the recommendations embodied in a report by a military commission, the French government reached the conclusion that the drum was no longer a necessary article of military equipment. The report set forth that the drum was a serious incumbrance in marching; that it impaired its usefulness; that its call could not be distinguished in time of battle; that it consumed a period of two years to turn out an efficient drummer, and that by abandoning the use of the drum many thousands of youths and men would be released for active service.

Since the decision of the French government other European powers have followed the example in deciding that the "drum must go."

The history of the drum is both ancient and honorable. The Egyptians employed it, and the Greeks ascribed its invention to Bacchus. The Spanish conqueror Pizarro is said to have found drums in South America temples. The snakes of Ireland, we are told, fled from the Emerald Isle before the drum-beats of St. Patrick. The Puritans of New England used the drum as a church bell, and it figured frequently and romantically all through our wars of the Revolution and the Civil war.

BIRD THAT KEEPS A SLAVE

Frigate-Bird Forces the Booby-Bird to Supply Fish for His Dinner.

The booby-bird never leaves the broad seas, where his harsh cry is heard from the "Hobbes" to the "Paros" and from the cliffs of Scotland to the coast of Norway. He revels in the storms and screams above the roar of the sea. The booby has green feet, yellow eyes, and a defiant head covered with a yellow cap. Each of its wings is three feet long and its beak is so stiff and so strong that it fears no enemy but the frigate-bird. The frigate-bird is the terror of the birds of the sea, though he ignores all but the booby. Owing to the breadth of his wings the frigate-bird is not fish; he is forced to remain in the air. But as he cannot get fish in the air, and as he requires fish for his nourishment, he presses the booby into his service. When hungry he swoops down upon the booby and gives it a vigorous thrust in its throat. Then the booby's mouth opens and the fish caught in it drops out. The frigate-bird has only to give one peck at the booby's throat to get his dinner. It happens occasionally that the booby is attacked by a frigate-bird, nothing in its mouth. When the frigate-bird pecks in vain, he belabors his slave with his beak and drives him, bruised and terrified, into the sea to catch fish.

Life Without Microbes.

The oft-debated question as to whether there can be life without microbes is held to have been solved by M. Michel Cohendy of the Pasteur Institute of Paris, who has reared live chickens in an enclosed space which was quite free from microbes. By the use of an ingenious apparatus for hatching the chickens and then raising them for a certain time, he was able to produce animals which did not contain any microbes, and they were able to live, and appeared to be as healthy as usual. His apparatus served in the first place as an incubator for hatching the eggs and then as a chamber where the chickens are able to live as long as may be desired. M. Cohendy kept the chickens in his apparatus for 45 days, and the contents of their digestive organs, blood and so on, were found to be free from microbes. Those that were kept alive did not seem to suffer at all from being transferred to the germ-laden atmosphere, for they grew up successfully.

Machine to Write Music.

A German musician has invented a machine which, he states, automatically registers the notes emitted by the piano. The new machine has the same object as one invented by an Italian and used by Mascagni in writing his operas, but it is a larger instrument and is operated by electricity. Into the machine is inserted a roll of paper, and the composer sits himself before the piano and executes the composition that he desires to give to the public. The machine faithfully registers every note produced, so that the musician does not have to depend upon his memory.

NUTS IN FOOD COMBINATIONS.

Nuts contain so much nutrition that they should be used more generally as a food. Those who object to the use of meat may find a good substitute in nuts.

Savory Nut Loaf.—Any nut loaf mixture may be served in the form of croquettes, with peas or a tomato sauce, making a satisfying luncheon dish. Take a cup of chopped nut meats, walnut or hickory, add four cups of bread crumbs, a chopped hard-boiled egg, a well-beaten egg, a half teaspoonful of salt, a half teaspoonful of pulverized sage, a medium sized onion, grated, and sufficient milk or water to moisten the mixture. Mix all together and roll in the form of a loaf, bake in a small bread pan well buttered. Bake about half an hour.

Almond Cookies.—Mix a pound of ground, blanched almonds with a pound of sugar, add a tablespoonful of powdered cinnamon, a tablespoonful of powdered cloves, five cents worth of anise seed, and the yolks of four eggs well beaten. Flour to make a stiff dough, adding the well-beaten whites of the eggs before the flour. Roll out and cut with fancy cutters. Bake in a moderate oven.

Peanut Butter Rice.—Cook a cupful of rice until tender, while hot stir in a cup of peanut butter, stirring until well mixed. Then add a half cup of milk, a cup of cracked corn, leaving out enough to spread over the loaf, and two well-beaten eggs. Make into a loaf, roll in crumbs and bake in a moderate oven.

Nut Mince Pie.—Take a cup of nut meats and two cups of apples cut fine, a half cup of vinegar, a half cup of water or other fruit juice, a half cup of sugar, a cup of raisins, a dash of salt and half a teaspoonful each of cinnamon, cloves and powdered orange peel. This is sufficient for two pies. Bake with two crusts.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following order was on the 11th day of November, A. D. 1912 made, in open court, by Honorable Nelson Sharpe, Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford, in Chancery.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
In the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford, in Chancery.
In the matter of the petition of the Directors of the Michelson & Hanson Lumber Company for its dissolution.

On reading and filing the petition of said directors in the above matter, with the accompanying accounts, inventory and affidavits.
It is ordered that all persons interested in said Michelson & Hanson Lumber Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of this state, whose cause, if any there be, why said corporation should not be dissolved before Oscar Palmer, a Circuit Commissioner in and for said county, at his office in the village of Grayling, in said county of Crawford, and state of Michigan, on Tuesday, the nineteenth day of February, 1913, at ten o'clock a. m.

If it further ordered that a notice of this order be published once in each week for three weeks successively in the Crawford Avalanche, a newspaper published in said county of Crawford, and in the Lewiston Journal, a newspaper published in the county of Montcalm, in the state of Michigan.
Dated November 11th 1912.

Nelson Sharpe, Circuit Judge.
Geo. L. Alexander, Solicitor for Petitioners.
Witness my hand and seal of office this 11th day of November, 1912.

SAN JAK

The Greatest Cure and Preventive for Bright's Disease.

No one ever cured kidney trouble with a pill, powder, tablet or mineral water. The reason is there is nothing in them by which you can force the drug to the vital point and neutralize the poison in the tissue and reduce the inflammation or granulation of the kidneys. (These are statistics by the most eminent men in the faculty.)

Symptoms of kidney trouble—swelling under the eyes, grayish white or wax color of the skin denotes granular diseases of the kidneys. The cure is SAN JAK. The reason is clear. SAN JAK neutralizes poison in the tissue of the vital organs of the body, clearing away inflammation and catarrh in all parts of the digestive tract and vital organs. SAN JAK is the only preparation allowing a normal expansion of the kidneys at all times, by which action the kidneys are enabled to absorb alkaline substances, which are the decomposed products of the bowels, and eliminate them. Otherwise, in renal weakness, this condition is the cause of all health and Bright's with rheumatism.

SAN JAK will not harm a well person, and for the weak ones its faithful use means perfect health and strength for young and old.

Man should die of old age, not disease.

San-Jak will keep your blood as pure as a lily. We sell San-Jak and will guarantee satisfaction or return the price of one bottle, $1.00.
